RESOLUTION
CORPORATION, INC

All fees are quoted on an annual life of contract basis. Claims Resolution Corporation Inc. (CRC) will handle all reported losses through conclusion for so long as there is a contractual relationship between the Client and CRC. CRC requires the execution of an annually renewable contract with a minimum of 90 days notice of termination and a 20% short rate penalty applicable to Client termination prior to the end of the contract period.

The quoted claims administration fees do not include those fees normally associated with allocated loss adjustment expenses. Allocated Loss Adjustment Expenses (ALAE) shall mean all costs, charges or expenses incurred by Company, its agents or its employees, and approved by Client in writing, with respect to a Qualified Claim including without limitation, court costs, fees and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees); checks, printing costs and banking fees, appeal bonds; independent adjusters; investigators; appraisers; vocational services, training or evaluation; medical expenses and medical cost containment service providers and managed care fees (including those provided by Company, if applicable); medical case management; peer review; injury triage; field investigation; MMSEA reporting; MSA set-asides; MSA medical cost projections; utilization review fees; rehabilitation services; experts and witnesses; fees for obtaining statements and official reports, payment processing, diagrams, reports, records, documents, transcripts, depositions, index bureau filings and re-filings and photographs; cost of file retrieval; cost associated with the pursuit of subrogation and/or Special Injury Fund claims and reasonable travel fees and expenses incurred by Company in the performance of the services contemplated herein.

Client understands and acknowledges that the Company may have business agreements, including cost sharing arrangements, with vendor service providers that perform services related to this Agreement or in connection with the services provided under this Agreement including services related to allocated and unallocated expenses. As part of these business agreements, there may be financial considerations paid by the vendor service provider to the Company for the resources and services that the Company may provide, which could include marketing, personnel, information technology, system access, and various administrative services. Client understands and acknowledges that it is under no obligation to utilize any vendor provider that is recommended by the Company to perform services related this Agreement and if Self Insured elects not to utilize the services of a recommended vendor provider, then Self Insured can select a vendor service provider it chooses to the perform such services. Self Insured acknowledges that if it selects a vendor service provider different than one that is recommended by Company then there may be an adjustment to the Claims Administration Services fee. Self-Insured also acknowledges that it has control over the types of and amounts of services a vendor service provider performs under or in connection with this Agreement, whether recommended by the Company or selected by Client.
